

Vision Fellowship

Are you a Black student interested in developing your passion project?

Apply to be an OBSD Vision Fellow!

Categories

▶ Research ◀

▶ Media & Arts ◀

▶ Community Wellness ◀

▶ Athletics ◀

Why apply to the Vision Fellowship?

- $800 stipend
- Publication/distribution of your project
- Participation in end of year showcase
- Connection to a faculty/staff mentor
- Winter & Spring 2025 commitment

Undergraduate students of all class levels are encouraged to apply!

Access the application here

Applications Due November 29, 2024

For more information, please contact Ashlee at ashlee@ucsb.edu

Vision Fellowship

This fellowship was created with student innovation as a priority! Categories are open to a wide breadth of topics.

Media and Arts

Film (documentary, short, feature length, etc.), musical project, performance art, visual art (animation, collage, sculpture), podcast, fashion design

Community Wellness

Activism, community programming (community gardens, volunteer efforts, voting drives, clothing drives), environmentalist efforts

Athletics

Representation politics, hosting an athletics camp, athletic design (clothing, sports wear, gear improvements, etc), sports education programs, nutrition

Independent Research

Research papers, observational research, new implications for existing data sets. STEM, Humanities, Arts, etc.

Applications Due November 29, 2024

For more information, please contact Ashlee at ashlee@ucsb.edu